Marriage Rekindled

Are you looking to enrich a healthy relationship, revitalize a tired one, or rescue one gone awry? Do you yearn to grow closer to God and to your spouse? We all want a lifetime of love, support, and faith, but sometimes we need a little help.

ALONGSIDE is excited to offer a new 5-day retreat for couples: “Love Rekindled—Growing Intimacy in Marriage.” Combining Biblical teaching, brain research, attachment theory, and 15 years of experience, Curt and Amy Anderson, along with two other therapists, invite you to join them for a cozy retreat involving 6 couples. Using material from the book Created for Connection, couples will be guided through a series of conversations that help them create, strengthen, and repair their emotional connection and grow secure bonds with each other and the Lord.

The retreat involves 9 sessions; each with 30 minutes of didactic teaching and 2 hours of experiential for the purpose of empowering couples to make lasting change. Therapists will provide structure and support as couples “practice” through carefully planned exercises, learning to be attuned, responsive, and engaged.

DATE:
September 25-29, 2017

COST:
$2,000 per couple includes four nights lodging,
two dinners and program.
